GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Iowa resident shareholders of S corporations may be eligible for a credit if the S corporation carries on business outside Iowa.

Married filing separate taxpayers (filing status 3 or 4): Each spouse must calculate a separate IA 134 credit.

If a taxpayer is a shareholder in multiple S corporations, a separate IA 134 must be completed for each S corporation.

Resident shareholders of all S corporations which carry on business activities in at least one other state may, at their election, determine the S corporation income allocable to sources within Iowa by allocation and apportionment of the S corporation income.

Page 1, line 13 - Other Deductions

Do not include amounts paid by the corporation that would be allowed as itemized deductions on a shareholder's return if they were paid directly by a shareholder for the same purpose.

Page 1, line 24 - Value of cash or property distributions from income not previously taxed by Iowa:

Distributions from income not previously taxed by Iowa include the amount of all cash distributions and the fair market value of all property distributions made during the year.

Do not include the following on this line:

- Distributions not subject to Iowa tax. Example: interest from Federal securities or certain securities issued by Iowa.
- Distributions from income previously taxed by Iowa for a year in which the S corporation was a C corporation and which is taxed as a dividend or capital gain for Federal income tax purposes.

c. Distributions from income previously taxed by Iowa for a year prior to the first tax year the resident shareholder elected to apportion income.

d. Distributions paid from income for which the corporation can show that Iowa tax has been previously paid.

OTHER INFORMATION

1. A shareholder of an S corporation which carries on business outside Iowa which has elected to apportion income and then elects not to apportion income cannot re-elect to apportion income for three tax years immediately following the first tax year in which the shareholder elected not to apportion income, unless the director of the Iowa Department of Revenue consents to the election.

2. If a taxpayer takes advantage of the apportionment provisions for a resident shareholder of an S corporation, then the taxpayer may not take a credit against Iowa income tax for income taxes or taxes measured by income paid to another state or foreign country on the S corporation income.

3. To the extent that any gift, grant, or donation to the Iowa Educational Savings Plan Trust Endowment Fund made on or after July 1, 1998, but before April 15, 2004, has not been deducted in computing Federal taxable income, shareholders may deduct their pro rata share of the amount for Iowa income tax purposes.

4. For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, 100% of Federal income tax attributable to S corporation income can be deducted on page 1, line 25.
